

ETHICS OF INTEGRATING DEVELOPING COUNTRIES INTO AGRICULTURAL TRADE

Allan Mckinnon

Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

Benefits of trade

- The evidence so far
- Agricultural trade

Developing countries

- Trade reform catching on
- Agricultural reform lags
- The ethical imperative

International Community

- Progress in trading system
- Agriculture lags
- The ethical imperative

Concerns about liberalisation

- Food security
- Adjustment costs
- Special and differential treatment

Backlash

- Fear of change
- The ethical imperative

Conclusion

- Responsibility to reform
- Responsibility of NGOs
- WTO negotiations